A whopping $6 billion dollars is the cost of data breaches in the health care industry including payers, providers and 3rd parties.

Personal medical devices are great for monitoring health but also increase the risk of Personal Health Information being stolen.

Growing trend to convert paper medical records to digital computerized healthcare – increasing the risk for cyberattacks.

$4.8 million was the biggest HIPPA breach fine when a doctor mistakenly published private patient data on the Internet.

Personal devices are the leading cause of healthcare security issues.

Medical identity theft can occur by letting family and friends use your ID for medical reasons. It's also illegal.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

81 percent of healthcare providers were impacted by cyberattacks between 2013 and 2015.

Healthcare has highest per capita data breach cost of all sectors, $363 on average per data breach.

It's Getting Worse
Criminal attacks on healthcare organizations are up 125% from five years ago.